IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

ARBITRATION PETITION NO.390 OF 2005

Aishwarya Atula Pusalkar. ... Petitioner.

vs.

Atul Shivram Pusalkar. .... Respondent.

Mr.V.J.Makhija i/b. S.R.Bhalekar, for Petitioner.

Mr.Atul Rajadhyakshya i/b. N.V.Gangal, for Respondent.

CORAM: D.K.DESHMUKH,J.

DATED: 7th December, 2005

P.C.:-

By consent of parties, the petition is disposed of in the following terms:-

(i) The learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner states that within a period of Eight weeks from today, the petitioner shall file suit in the appropriate Court seeking reliefs that may be available to her as a consequence of dissolution of the firm. The statement is accepted.

(ii) The learned Counsel appearing for the respondent states that for a period of Eight weeks from today, the respondent shall not dispose of, transfer or alienate the assets of the partnership firm. The statement is accepted.

The petition is disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.